AROUND TOWN

Alfama

Once the Moorish and Jewish quarter, this quaint medieval neighborhood is the second oldest in Europe. It is considered by many to be the true soul of the city with its clothes lines and exquisite old buildings and tiles. Perfect for wandering around without a map and catching glimpses of the river around every corner. Be prepared to discover the sounds and aromas of the city as you are likely to hear Fado and smell grilled sardines every step of the way.

Lift and Miradouro of Santa Justa

Built by a disciple of Gustave Eiffel, the lift opened in 1902 and has been taking people from Baixa to Bairro Alto ever since. Take a break at the café on top and enjoy the fantastic view of the city centre, especially at night.

Bairro Alto

Bairro Alto is a mix of the old and new hipster Lisbon. During the day, "Bairro", as it is known by locals, is a relatively quiet place perfect for vintage and antique shopping. It comes to life at night when restaurants and bars welcome all types of crowds that fill the streets, glass in hand.

Belém

Belém is home to some of the most famous monuments in Lisbon. From Padrão dos Descobrimentos to the Tower of Belém, the Portuguese discoveries are in the centre of this part of town. Imposing its presence in Belém, is the Jerónimos Monastery, the ultimate example of Manueline style, an architectural style that incorporates maritime elements and representations of the discoveries with aspects of Late Gothic architecture.

Belém is also home to the world renowned Pastéis de Belém, traditional custard tarts that have conquered people around the globe. Decorated with white and blue tiles, these large tea rooms are a major tourist attraction and while it might take a while to get a table, it is definitely worth the wait!

Castelo de São Jorge

This medieval castle is a must see. Go up by taking the 28 tram and enjoy the old town on the way up. When there, go up the watch towers and enjoy the amazing views of the city, the bridge and the river. For the full royal experience order a glass of wine and enjoy the beautiful sunset.

Janelas Verdes

Galleries and concept shops keep sprouting in Janelas Verdes, turning it into the up-and-coming spot in Lisbon. It offers one of the best views of the river and is ideal for a quiet brunch. Make sure to stop by "Palácio do Ramalhete", a traditional tiled palace.

S. Pedro Alcântara View Point

This "Miradouro" offers sublime views of the city, mainly the castle, and the river. Ideal for sunset lovers!

Praça do Comércio

One of the most emblematic places of Lisbon, the square was home to the Portuguese royal family for centuries. It is mandatory to walk under the Arch of Rua Augusta towards the river and admire the statue of King Joseph I under the unique Lisbon light.

Príncipe Real

Príncipe Real is the new cool spot for both locals and tourists. It offers the best concept shops and the most diverse cuisine in town. If the weather is good, quench your thirst at one of the kiosks in the park and indulge into some people watching.

MUSEUMS

Museu Calouste Gulbenkian

Av. de Berna, 45-A
1067-001 Lisbon

This is one of Europe's leading fine arts museums, with an outstanding collection of Babylonian, Egyptian, Greek, Roman, Islamic, Asian, and European art. Among the painters represented are Ghirlandaio, Rubens, Rembrandt, Hals, Manet, Degas, Renoir and Monet.

Museu Nacional de Arte Antiga (Ancient Art Museum)

R. das Janelas Verdes
1249-017 Lisboa

MNAA is "Portugal's national gallery". From painting to sculpture, this museum hosts a wide-ranging collection of works from Africa, Orient and Europe, coexisting with the theme of the discoveries. Amid the painters represented are Bosch, Dürer, and Raphael.

Museu Fundação Oriente

Av. Brasília, 352
1350-352 Lisboa

Opened in 2008, this museum dedicated to o Asian art, expresses the ties between Portugal and the Orient. The museum hosts Indo-Portuguese pieces, Chinese, Japanese, and Indonesian ceramics, textiles, furnishings, paintings, and masks.

GUIDED TOURS

Hop-On Hop-Off

An easy way to explore the city is from way up high on open top buses. Hop-On Hop-Off Lisbon provide bus tour routes with more than 40 stops around Lisbon.

Tuk-tuks

In recent years Tuk-tuks started to be seen in Lisbon and since then they became a popular attraction among tourists. There 500 estimated tuk-tuks in the city. You can plan your own tour (usually a Tuk-tuk seats 3 to 6 passengers) at around 50 euros for an hour with the driver acting as a guide.

DAY TRIP FROM LISBON

CASCAIS

25 Km west of Lisbon you will find a charming beach town located in a gorgeous coastline of glorious sandy beaches. Cascais was the former residence of the royal family and a pioneer of tourism in Portugal. We recommend you to explore the city by foot, where you will find restaurants, terraces and shops of the highest quality. The local cuisine consists especially of fresh fish and shellfish dishes.

In Cascais you can visit the historic city center, the Centro Cultural de Cascais (art museum), Casa das Histórias (an art museum that displays a permanent collection from Paula Rego) and the Marina complex. Near Cascais you can find the beautiful Guincho Beach (perfect for surfing and windsurfing) and Cabo da Roca (the most westerly point of mainland Europe).

SINTRA

About 25 Km from Lisbon you can visit Sintra, a striking picturesque city classified by UNESCO as a World heritage site. Gifted with luxuriant vegetation - praised by Lord Byron who called it "glorious Eden" -, as well as historic buildings and outstanding palaces, this village is a fantastic tourist destination. In this enchanting village you must visit the historic center, Quinta da Regaleira (Regaleira Palace and Gardens), Palácio da Pena (Pena Palace), Castelo dos Mouros (Moorish Castle), Palácio Nacional (National Palace) and Monserrate (Park and Palace of Monserrate).

The local cuisine includes two unforgettable delicacies: the travesseiros (puff pastes stuffed with a sweet egg and almond mixture) and the queijadas (the famous cheese-cakes that follow a 12th century cooking recipe).

FÁTIMA

Known as "the altar of the world", Fátima is a city located 140 km north of Lisbon. Fátima is one of the most important catholic shrines dedicated to the Virgin Mary, and entices thousands of pilgrims from all over the world. The visitors gather in a massive plaza where a little chapel was built and where is believed that the Virgin Mary has appeared.
